

You have to respect the privacy of the NJ residents and protect them from overly aggressive marketing practices of some companies, who have no respect for the customer's time or privacy. We want the state legislature to guide how our rights are protected.